

Career Success Programme

A junior cycle student who undertakes the Career Success programme will focus on:

- Expressing ideas clearly and accurately (key skill of Being Literate)
 - Performing and presenting (key skill of Communicating)
 - Working with others through digital technology (key skill of Communicating)
 - Reflecting on and evaluating my learning (key skill of Managing Information and Thinking)
 - Being social (key skill of Staying Well)

Supporting students' engagement with the Key Skills through the Junior Achievement Ireland Programmes

Futurewize Programme

A junior cycle student who undertakes the Futurewize programme will focus on:

- Exploring options & alternatives (key skill of Being Creative)
- Being curious (key skill of Managing Information & Thinking)
 - Developing a positive disposition towards investigating, reasoning and problem solving (key skill of Being Numerate)
 - Discussing and debating (key skill of Communicating)

Finance Your Future Programme

A junior cycle student who undertakes the Finance Your Future programme will focus on:

- Exploring options and alternatives (key skill of Being Creative)
- Listening and expressing myself (key skill of Communicating)
- Estimating predicting and calculating (key skill of Being Numerate)
 - Developing a positive disposition towards investigating, reasoning and problem-solving (key skill of Being Numerate)

More Than Money Programme

A junior cycle student who undertakes the More Than Money programme will focus on:

- Estimating, predicting and calculating (key skill of Being Numerate)
 - Learning with others (key skill of Working with Others)
- Making considered decisions (key skill of Managing Myself)
 - Using number (key skill of Communicating)

Enterprise in Action Programme

A junior cycle student who undertakes the Enterprise in Action programme will focus on:

- Learning creatively (key skill of Being Creative)
- Making considered decisions (key skill of Managing Myself)
 - Discussing and debating (key skill of Communicating)
 - Co-operating (key skill of Working with Others)
 - Being confident (key skill of Staying Well)

Junior Cycle for Teachers (JCT) aims to inspire, support and empower teachers in the transformation of junior cycle education in Ireland

Junior Achievement Ireland (JAI) works with industry and education partners to inspire and motivate young people to maximise their potential by valuing their education and seeing a future for themselves in the world of work

www.jct.ie

www.jai.ie

Economics of Staying in School Programme

A junior cycle student who undertakes the Economics of Staying in School programme will focus on:

- Developing good relationships and dealing with conflict (key skill of Working with Others)
- Estimating, predicting and calculating (key skill of Being Numerate)
 - Listening and expressing myself (key skill of Communicating)
 - Learning creatively (key skill of Being Creative)

INDUSTRY ROLE MODELS

LINKING CURRICULUM TO WORLD OF WORK

BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS IN THE CLASSROOM

TRANSVERSAL SKILLS

EMPOWERING STUDENTS' LEARNING

An tSraith Shóisearach do Mhúinteoirí
JuniorCYCLE
 for teachers

Junior Achievement Ireland
 INSPIRING YOUNG MINDS

For more information on Junior Achievement Ireland please see www.jai.ie or email info@jai.ie